Press Release

For immediate release

Radio One's Scott Mills returns to Newquay.

BBC Radio One's drive time personality Scott Mills is coming to Newquay on Saturday 23rd May. Scott is making another exclusive appearance in the resort for Berties, to launch the club's summer season.

Scott has lived with the Hoff, hosts the national lottery, and presents the Radio One drivetime show to the nation every weekday; he is proving to be one of the country's favourite personalities. However on a number of occasions he has told his thousands of listeners to his radio one show, his nights in Berties nightclub Newquay have been some of his most memorable.

Scott Mills is all about personality and is famous for his fun and cheeky interactive style, with features on his show like Flirt Divert, where listeners are advised to give his Flirt Divert number to people they hook up with but don't want to call them again and Laura's Diary where he reads extracts from a diary belonging to Laura, one of his co-hosts, written when she was younger. Scott has been extremely successful as the drivetime presenter at Radio One so much so, he is also the stations first choice to deputise for Chris Moyles on Radio One's flagship Breakfast Show when he is away.

Berties Marketing Manager, Tony Townsend, says Scott has the whole package which is why people love him, he's a great DJ full of personality and loves what he does which comes across. He also spends ages after the show talking about how much fun he had in Newquay which puts the resort at the forefront of people's minds when thinking about their holidays.
